

TRAVEL AGENTS LICENSING BOARD

Twentieth Annual Report
For the year ended 30 June 2007

INTRODUCTION

The Travel Agents Act 1987 requires that all travel agents in Tasmania hold a licence to operate. A travel agent may be licensed to arrange travel in two separate categories. These are: Category A Business (international travel or international travel and accommodation); and Category B Business (domestic travel or domestic travel and accommodation).

Licensing of travel agents is part of a national scheme to protect customer funds until they are passed on to the provider of the travel service. The Travel Agents Licensing Board is the licensing authority for this State.

To hold a licence, a travel agent must be a contributor to the Travel Compensation Fund (TCF), which reimburses consumers in the event of financial loss resulting from the failure of travel agents to account for client funds.

There is a close relationship between the TCF and the Board and this relationship is clearly defined in the Act.

TASMANIAN LEGISLATION

The participation of Tasmania in the national scheme is provided for under the Travel Agents Act 1987, which establishes a Travel Agents Licensing Board and defines its membership and functions.

Under the legislation, a person must not carry on the business of a travel agent unless licensed by the Board. The requirements to be met in order to be eligible to obtain a licence are listed in the Act and include:

- a minimum age requirement;
- participation, or eligibility for participation, in the Travel Compensation Fund;
- being a fit and proper person to be a holder of a licence; and
- meeting certain prescribed levels of qualifications and experience in the making of travel arrangements.

A licence may also be issued subject to prescribed conditions and restrictions.

However, the Act provides that a person does not need to be licensed if:

- the gross turnover of the business as a travel agent during the preceding 12 month period did not exceed $50,000; and
- the only rights to travel or accommodation sold during that period in the course of the business were the rights to travel or accommodation within Australia.

LEGISLATION AMENDMENTS

On 1 April 2005 the Travel Agents Amendment Regulations 2005 and the Travel Agents (Exemption) Order 2005 came into effect as part of the National Competition Policy (NCP) review of the National Scheme for the Regulation of Travel Agents.

The Travel Agents Amendment Regulations 2005 has changed the qualification requirements for licensed travel agents in Tasmania. There are now two categories of travel, which requires a travel agent licence. A Category A business licence is required for the sale of international travel or international travel and accommodation as qualifications are required. A Category B business licence is required for the sale of any other travel or travel and accommodation within Australia (domestic) and no qualification are requirements.

Travel Agents Amendment Regulations 2005

Part 2 – Qualifications required on and after 1 January 2006

Category A business (sale of international travel or international travel and accommodation)

The prescribed qualifications for a person in charge of the day-to-day conduct of a Category A business selling international travel or international travel and accommodation are:

- (a) the successful completion of Unit of Competence THTSOP20A (Construct Normal International Airfares) delivered or assessed by a person registered by a State or Territory Training Authority in accordance with the Australian Quality Training Framework; OR
- (b) one year of full-time experience, or part-time experience or a combination of full-time and part-time experience equalling one year of full-time experience, gained in the preceding 5 years –
 - arranging or selling international travel or international travel and accommodation; OR
 - as a person managing or in charge of the day-to-day conduct of a travel agency licensed in a State or Territory to arrange or sell international travel or international travel and accommodation.

Category B business (sale of any other travel or travel and accommodation)

There are no prescribed qualifications required.

Travel Agents (Exemption) Order 2005

The Travel Agents (Exemption) Order 2005 authorises travel agents licensed in a reciprocating State or Territory to advertise and solicit business in Tasmania without requiring a Tasmanian licence.

This also enables Tasmanian businesses with a current travel agent licence, to advertise or solicit to sell travel or travel and accommodation in all States and Territories (other than the Northern Territory) without obtaining a licence in that State or Territory. The category of travel being advertised must be in accordance with the category authorised on the current licence.

Travel Agents Order 2004

The Travel Agents Order 2004 allows for persons who carry on business as a travel agent, selling travel only within Australia, not to be licensed if their gross annual turnover is less than $50,000. Previously this amount was $30,000.

TRAVEL AGENTS LICENSING BOARD

In 2006, after consultation with Tasmanian travel agents, a decision was made to begin the process of winding up the Travel Agents Licensing Board, to take effect before the expiry of the current Board member's Term of Appointment. Administrative, advisory and compliance services will continue to be provided by the Office of Consumer Affairs and Fair Trading (CAFT). Consultative functions between the travel industry and CAFT will also continue. The existing Board members were reappointed on 6 November 2006 for a twelve-month period only. The current members are:

- Ms Jan Copson, who is the current Chairman, appointed by the Governor of Tasmania;
- Ms Carole Bradford, representing members of the Australian Federation of Travel Agents (AFTA);
- Ms Penny Archer, representing travel agents who are not members of AFTA; and
- Mr Chris Batt, Director of Consumer Affairs and Fair Trading.

The Travel Agents Act requires the Board to:

- licence travel agents;
- ensure that high standards within the industry are maintained;
- ensure that those who hold a licence conduct their business in a competent manner;
- investigate any complaint or charge that a licensed travel agent has contravened or failed to comply with the provisions of the Act; and
- maintain a register of licensed travel agents.

TRAVEL COMPENSATION FUND

The Travel Compensation Fund (TCF) was established in 1987. It is the second part of the national scheme and it set up a deed of trust to compensate consumers who experience financial loss resulting from the collapse of a travel agency.

The TCF monitors the financial viability of travel agents and therefore provides an assessment of their managerial competence. A national register of participants is also maintained by the Fund. Licensed travel agents in all jurisdictions, except the Northern Territory, are required to participate.

The TCF fee structure is:

	Principal Office	Branch Office
	$	$
Administration Fee	772.20	477.40
Fund Contribution	8173.00	5500.00
TOTAL	8945.20	5977.40

The Administration Fee is non-refundable. The Fund Contribution will be returned only on the withdrawal or refusal of the application. The Fund Contribution is not transferable to another entity. Except in limited cases, where a remission of contribution is available, the subsequent restructuring of ownership of the business, for example, from a sole trader to a partnership, or from a partnership to a proprietary limited company, will require a new application to be lodged and payment of the Administration Fee, Fund Contribution and GST.

TRAVEL COMPENSATION FUND DEED OF TRUST

The operations of the Travel Compensation Fund are established under a Deed of Trust administered by Trustees appointed by the Consumer Affairs Ministers of each participating State and Territory.

In Tasmania, the original Deed is reproduced in Regulations made under the Travel Agents Act 1987. However, as various amendments have been made since that time, the Office maintains an up to date copy.

Any person who wishes to view an amended copy of the Deed is welcome to do so by calling into Consumer Affairs and Fair Trading during business hours. It is also available on the TCF website at www.tcf.org.au.

As a result of a major re-drafting of the Deed of Trust, the number of Trustees has been reduced from 16 to 11 and the method of appointment altered. The Ministerial Council now appoints all Trustees as a joint decision (Clause 4.0).

LICENCE RENEWALS

Travel agents are issued an invoice for payment for licence renewals due on 1 July each year. To avoid incurring a late fee penalty, agents are required to pay licence renewals before 31 July.

COMPLIANCE

The Advisory and Compliance Branch of the Office of Consumer Affairs and Fair Trading provided general advice to callers, mainly dealing with the terms and conditions of travel tickets. There was no specific audit of travel agents other than the general auditing done as part of the annual licence renewal process.

REGISTER OF LICENCES

The Act requires the Travel Agents Licensing Board to keep a register of licence holders, which is available for inspection by any person. The register must include the addresses of the principal and branch locations for each agent, together with the name and address of the manager of each location.

The register is computerised and can be inspected between 9.00 am and 4.30 pm at Consumer Affairs and Fair Trading, 15 Murray Street, Hobart.

A list of current licensed travel agents, together with their principal business address, highest qualification, and manager details is included in Appendix B.

RECEIPTS AND PAYMENTS

The receipts and payments of the Board from 1 July 2006 to 30 June 2007 is shown in Appendix A. The receipts are derived from licence and renewal fees set down in the regulations of the Act, and interest derived from that money.

ADMINISTRATION

Consumer Affairs and Fair Trading provides a secretariat function to the Board, for which the Office is reimbursed. In addition, the Advisory and Compliance Branch of the Office undertakes all compliance activities on behalf of the Board.

TRAVEL AGENTS AND FAIR TRADING

Travellers experience a great diversity of problems and many of these results from innocent mistakes or reasons beyond an agent's control. However, an agent has a professional obligation to take precautions to prevent problems occurring.

The most common problems experienced by travel consumers are:

- incorrect flight times shown on airline tickets;
- confirmed bookings being refused by an airline due to local peculiarities;
- not being advised that a booking is waitlisted, or in some cases not advised of the significance of such status being endorsed on a ticket;
- increases in prices of tours and/or airline tickets after consumers have made the final payment, due to currency fluctuations, airlines or consolidators withdrawing special rates for the wrong season;
- vouchers for travel services not being accepted by overseas tour operators;
- tours cancelled or varied at the last moment, leaving insufficient time for consumers to make alternative arrangements;
- not being notified of co-share arrangements;

- standards of accommodation and travel services being inferior to, or shorter duration than those described in tour brochures;
- not being advised of special requirements such as visa, customs, monetary controls, etc.
- not being notified of cancellation charges at the time of booking, or the possibility of lengthy delays in obtaining refunds of unused air tickets, especially 'off-shore' tickets.

The Travel Agents Licensing Board believes the following are essential for the proper conduct of a travel agency.

FULL DISCLOSURE

A consumer cannot be expected to accept a share of responsibility in any transaction if they are unaware of that responsibility. They should be fully informed of all costs, schedules, conditions and cancellation fees. Where special conditions apply to tickets, these should be fully explained, preferably both verbally and in writing.

A travel agent should respond to questions about products or services with detailed information and give detailed written quotations. This will require the agent to have a high standard of product knowledge, which is continually being updated.

FAIR CANCELLATION FEES

The common law recognises the right of a business to fair compensation when consumers cancel an arrangement. Cancellation fees should, however, reflect true costs.

ACCURATE REPRESENTATIONS

It is essential that all promotional material give an accurate overall impression. Representations concerning what is offered should not be false or misleading. This can be conveyed by pictures in brochures and advertisements, as well as by word. Similarly, the prices charged for accommodation or tours may give rise to certain expectations as to the standard offered.

ADEQUATE NOTICE OF VARIATIONS

Consumers must always be informed of variations as soon as they become known rather than waiting until the consumer comes to pick up the tickets.

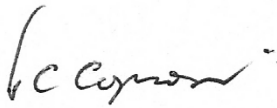

GOOD OFFICE PRACTICES

Many problems arise because agents do not keep accurate records or operate according to the standards of good office practices. Details of all transactions need to be adequately documented. The more important points should be explained and preferably in writing.

STATEMENT BY THE CHAIRMAN OF THE TRAVEL AGENTS LICENSING BOARD

The accompanying financial statement of the Travel Agents Licensing Board has been prepared on a cash basis of accounting and is in agreement with the relevant accounts and records to present fairly the financial transactions for the year ending 30 June 2007.

At the date of signing I am not aware of any circumstances, which would render the particulars included in the financial statement misleading or inaccurate.
